

Upgrading Your Military Discharge? Generally, forget it.

<http://usmilitary.about.com/cs/generalinfo/a/dischargeupg.htm>, but, if you want to try:

How To Upgrade Your Military Discharge, <http://usmilitary.about.com/cs/generalinfo/ht/dischargeupgrad.htm>

If you received anything but an "Honorable" Discharge, this may affect your VA Benefits. Here's how you can apply for consideration in having your discharge upgraded:

Difficulty: Average; Time Required: 60 Minutes (HAH, to both, this should take some time to do it properly)

How To: Obtain a copy of DD Form 293, "Application for the Review of Discharge or Dismissal from the Armed Forces of the United States."

- Complete personal information in Section 1.
- If you are making the application on behalf of another individual, complete Section 2.
- Indicate the action you wish the board to accomplish in Section 3.
- In section 4, indicate whether you wish to appear before the board in Washington D.C., wait for a traveling board, or have a records only review.
- If you are being represented by another person, complete section 5.
- Complete Section 6 if you elect not to be represented by counsel.
- List supporting documentation in Section 7.
- In Section 8, tell the board exactly why they should consider upgrading your discharge.
- Sign and Date the Form in Section 9.
- Mail the completed form to the address listed on the reverse side of the DD Form 293.

Tips:

- Most of these requests are not approved. To maximize your chances, it is a good idea to be represented by an experienced attorney.
- If the Discharge is over 15 years old, you must apply for a Correction of Military Records.

It may take several months for the board to review your application and make a decision.

Military Separation Codes, Alphabetical

From: <http://usmilitary.about.com/od/theorderlyroom/a/code2.htm>

These codes are contained in your military records and may be annotated on various military separation documents. These codes are subject to change, and the Department of Defense will no longer allow the military services to release the meanings of these codes to the general public. The below definitions were obtained before this prohibition went into effect. (Use "search" to find your code)
